ORDER

This matter having come before the Court on the ex parte motion of the United States to seal the criminal complaint and arrest warrants, it is hereby ORDERED that the criminal complaint and arrest warrants shall be and remain under seal until the arrest of the defendants, but not later than December 28, 2007, unless further ordered by this Court. Notwithstanding this order, the government may disclose the existence of the warrants insofar as it may deem necessary to effectuate their execution and may disclose the complaint following the arrest of defendants.
